

COVENTRY VILLAGE

AUTHOR SERIES

Lost Found Kept: A Psychologist's Story About Hoarding and Resilience

FEATURING AUTHOR

DEBORAH DERRICKSON KOSSMANN

Thursday September 24
at Cleveland Heights
Public Library-Coventry Village

1925 Coventry Rd.
Cleveland Heights, OH 44118

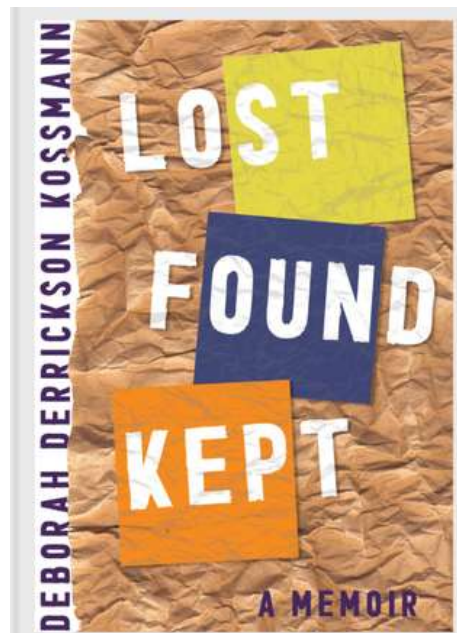

Free and open to the public

Book signing 6pm–6:30pm,
talk 6:30–7:30pm

To register, email:
leahincleveland@gmail.com

In this powerful memoir, psychologist Deborah Derrickson Kossmann discovers her mother's house is a hoarder house and embarks on a life-changing excavation—of the childhood home, of buried family secrets, and of the hidden roots of hoarding. Blending personal narrative with professional insight, she explores what drives hoarding, how it impacts families, and how loved ones can offer compassionate support and effective intervention.

For more information, visit lostfoundkept.com

Psychologists who attend (upon completion of CE credit requirements) from Cleveland Psychological Association (CPA)

Mac's Backs will have signed books
available for purchase